

Ecclesiastes 3:16-22 Elohiym Shall Judge The Righteous And The Wicked

Injustice Seems to Prevail

<sup>16</sup> Moreover I saw under the sun:

In the place of judgment, Wickedness was there;
And in the place of righteousness, Iniquity was there.

<sup>17</sup> I said in my heart, "Elohiym (God) shall judge the righteous and the wicked,
For there is a time there for every purpose and for every work."

<sup>18</sup> I said in my heart, "Concerning the condition of the sons of men, Elohiym (God) tests them, that they may see that they themselves are like animals."

<sup>19</sup> For what happens to the sons of men also happens to animals; one thing befalls them: as one dies, so dies the other. Surely, they all have one breath; man has no advantage over animals, for all is vanity.

<sup>20</sup> All go to one place: all are from the dust, and all return to dust.

<sup>21</sup> Who knows the spirit of the sons of men, which goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, which goes down to the earth?*

<sup>22</sup> So I perceived that nothing is better than that a man should rejoice in his own works, for that is his heritage. For who can bring him to see what will happen after him?

Facts Revealed:

- ✧ Discerning truth in places of authority [Ecclesiastes 3:16-17]
  - ✧ In his search for wisdom Solomon discerned that wickedness was found in the place where judgment was required, and iniquity was found where righteousness was required.
  - ✧ He concluded that Elohiym will judge both the righteous and the wicked.

  - ✧ Solomon's conclusion that the best for man is to rejoice in his own works for that is his heritage is shortsighted.
  - ✧ In his fallen state, Solomon lost sight of the revelations of Yahweh. [1 Kings 11:1-13]

- ✧ To him it was clearly revealed that the righteous would dwell in the presence of Yahweh forever.
- ✧ Yahweh clearly told David that his throne would be established forever and that his son would build the Temple David longed to build. [2 Samuel 7:1-17]
