

Genesis 41:1-46 Pharaoh's dream brings Joseph's exaltation

<sup>1</sup> Then it came to pass, at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh had a dream; and behold, he stood by the river. <sup>2</sup> Suddenly there came up out of the river seven cows, fine looking and fat; and they fed in the meadow. <sup>3</sup> Then behold, seven other cows came up after them out of the river, ugly and gaunt, and stood by the other cows on the bank of the river. <sup>4</sup> And the ugly and gaunt cows ate up the seven fine looking and fat cows. So Pharaoh awoke. <sup>5</sup> He slept and dreamed a second time; and suddenly seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, plump and good. <sup>6</sup> Then behold, seven thin heads, blighted by the east wind, sprang up after them. <sup>7</sup> And the seven thin heads devoured the seven plump and full heads. So Pharaoh awoke, and indeed, it was a dream. <sup>8</sup> Now it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. And Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them for Pharaoh.

<sup>9</sup> Then the chief butler spoke to Pharaoh, saying: "I remember my faults this day. <sup>10</sup> When Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, both me and the chief baker, <sup>11</sup> we each dreamed a dream in one night, he and I. Each of us dreamed according to the interpretation of his own dream. <sup>12</sup> Now there was a young Hebrew man with us there, a servant of the captain of the guard. And we told him, and he interpreted our dreams for us; to each man he interpreted according to his own dream. <sup>13</sup> And it came to pass, just as he interpreted for us, so it happened. He restored me to my office, and he hanged him."

<sup>14</sup> Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him quickly out of the dungeon; and he shaved, changed his clothing, and came to Pharaoh. <sup>15</sup> And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that you can understand a dream, to interpret it." <sup>16</sup> So Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, "It is not in me; God will give Pharaoh an answer of peace." <sup>17</sup> Then Pharaoh said to Joseph: "Behold, in my dream I stood on the bank of the river. <sup>18</sup> Suddenly seven cows came up out of the river, fine looking and fat; and they fed in the meadow. <sup>19</sup> Then behold, seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly and gaunt, such ugliness as I have never seen in all the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup> And the gaunt and ugly cows ate up the first seven, the fat cows. <sup>21</sup> When they had eaten them up, no one would have known that they had eaten them, for they were just as ugly as at the beginning. So I awoke. <sup>22</sup> Also I saw in my dream, and suddenly seven heads came up on one stalk, full and good. <sup>23</sup> Then behold, seven heads, withered, thin, and blighted by the east wind, sprang up after them. <sup>24</sup> And the thin heads devoured the seven good heads. So I told this to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me."

<sup>25</sup> Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "The dreams of Pharaoh are one; God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do: <sup>26</sup> The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good heads are seven years; the dreams are one. <sup>27</sup> And the seven thin and ugly cows which came up after them are seven years, and the seven empty heads blighted by the east wind are seven years of famine. <sup>28</sup> This is the thing which I have spoken to Pharaoh. God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do. <sup>29</sup> Indeed seven years of great plenty will come throughout all the land of Egypt; <sup>30</sup> but after them seven years of famine will arise, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine will deplete the land. <sup>31</sup> So the plenty will not be known in the land because of the famine following, for it will be very severe. <sup>32</sup> And the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass. <sup>33</sup> Now therefore, let Pharaoh select a discerning and wise man, and set him over the land of Egypt. <sup>34</sup> Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, to collect one-fifth of the produce of the land of Egypt in the seven plentiful years. <sup>35</sup> And let them gather all the food of those good years that are coming, and store up grain under the authority of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities. <sup>36</sup> Then that food shall be as a reserve for the land for the seven years of famine which shall be in the land of Egypt, that the land may not perish during the famine."

<sup>37</sup> So the advice was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all his servants. <sup>38</sup> And Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find such a one as this, a man in whom is the Spirit of God?" <sup>39</sup> Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Inasmuch as God has shown you all this, there is no one as discerning and wise as you. <sup>40</sup> You shall be over my house, and all my people shall be ruled according to your word; only in regard to the throne will I be greater than you." <sup>41</sup> And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt." <sup>42</sup> Then Pharaoh took his signet ring off his hand and put it on Joseph's hand; and he clothed him in garments of fine linen and put a gold chain around his neck. <sup>43</sup> And he had him ride in the second chariot which he had; and they cried out before him, "Bow the knee!" So he set him over all the land of Egypt. <sup>44</sup> Pharaoh also said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, and without your consent no man may lift his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt." <sup>45</sup> And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphnath-Paaneah. And he gave him as a wife Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Pherah priest of On. So Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

<sup>46</sup> Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. NKJV

Facts revealed:

- ✧ All things happen in God's own timing.
- ✧ Two years after the release of the Butler from prison and his restoration to his position to serve the cup into Pharaoh's hand, Pharaoh had two dreams and none of his wise men and magicians were able to give the interpretation.
- ✧ Then the butler remembered Joseph from his prison experience two years earlier and he told Pharaoh about it.
- ✧ Pharaoh sent for Joseph and told him the dreams he had experienced and Joseph interpreted them for Pharaoh, giving God the credit for the revelation.
The dreams tell of the coming of seven years of plenty followed by seven years of famine.
- ✧ Joseph suggested that Pharaoh set a man over all of Egypt to collect 20% of the years of abundance to help them weather the seven years of famine yet to come to preserve the land from perishing in the famine.
- ✧ Pharaoh acknowledged that since God had revealed this to Joseph when none of his trusted Wise Men were able to help, then Joseph should be the man for the job.
- ✧ So Pharaoh appointed Joseph over all in Egypt except for himself and his throne.
- ✧ Joseph was 30 years old when he was appointed second in command over all of Egypt.
- ✧ All Joseph had done to receive such authority was to be faithful to God in whatever circumstances he found himself. This is the same trait of character Paul expressed in his letter to the Philippians as he said, I can do all things through Christ Who strengthens me. [Philippians 4:10-13]
- ✧ It is the Lord's doing and it is marvelous in our eyes. [Psalm 118:23]
